Note: Two-hour slots are normal for training. One-hour slots are the minimum requirement.
An orientation session will be arranged prior to formal training sessions.

Whenever possible we try to place you with someone whose schedule is compatible so they can oversee most or all of your 'on-air' training.

Please circle your experience, skills, and interests in the following areas (if any).

Radio DJ/Presenter, Radio talk format/news reader, TV announcer/show host, Club/live music DJ, Interview skills, Writing skills, Copy editing, Musician, instrumentalist or vocalist, Music lover, Consumer or professional electronics experience.

By signing this form, and paying the required "Training Fee", you acknowledge that you are committed to turn up at training sessions, arranged between you and the designated trainer.

If you are unable to turn up for a training session, you are expected to phone or text the trainer and give reasonable notice. Failure to notify the trainer causes inconvenience and time wasting for the trainer and other Tank FM staff.

Failure to turn up at these sessions on two (2) occasions (either consecutively or randomly), and/or notify the trainer, will cause the designated trainer to contact you, in order to determine whether or not your training will continue.

Failure to turn up for training on three (3) occasions (either consecutively or randomly), and/or notify the trainer will result in automatic termination of your training.

Resumption of your training will be at the discretion of the designated trainer, however, you will be required to pay another "Training Fee".
